CHOP STROKE A FACTOR

Winner Comes From Behind in
Two of Three Deuce Sets
7-5, 11-9, 7-5.

By SAMUEL J. BROOKMAN.

Crafty tennis, coupled with splendid control and plenty of grit, won the Harlem Challenge cup for Alfred D. Hammett in the final of the annual tournament at the Harlem Tennis Club yesterday. In Kenneth D. Fisher Hammett faced an opponent who had the advantage in speed and hard hitting, but skill aided by a baffling chop stroke and a well directed lob prevailed after three of the hardest sets of the tournament. It was easily the sharpest tussle of the week, a most fitting climax to a competition in which a well balanced draw kept interest alive to the end. The score was 7-5, 11-9, 7-5.

Placing with unerring judgment and varying the length and speed of his shots, Hammett fairly ran Fisher dizzy during the three sets. Fisher never let up a moment and managed to catch up with the most difficult of the match. He double faulted and most of them came at critical stages. That he was able to keep every set in doubt up to the final point despite the frequency of his errors was due to the fact that between nets and out Fisher sent the ball booming through for placement, the speed and power of his forehand earning him 52 points to Hammett's 13. These errors told the story of the match. Hammett's game was defensive, but marked by superb control. Fisher's was aggressive but untidy.

Outwardly calm, Hammett proved he had plenty of fight in his makeup. He came from behind in the first set when apparently his chances of saving it were hopeless and won it 7-5, after Fisher had led at 4-1 and 3-2. In the second set, too, Hammett twice fought his opponent off when the latter was within a point of the set, once at 6-5 and 40-40, and again at 10-20. In each case it was some remarkable getting for Hammett to save the game for Fisher was stroking powerfully in the hope of clinching the set in his favor. It was astonishing when, shortly after Hammett had handled Fisher's speed, many a time Fisher coming up to the net to meet a ball that was short and he was not able to reach it, but Hammett, anticipating well, hopped up in the right place, sent the ball back lob fashion and finally coaxed Fisher into an error. Hammett never threw a point away and never gave any up. Neither did Fisher, and it was this earnestness and aggressiveness that held a large gallery interested for more than two and a quarter hours.

Misses Opportunities.
Fisher's judgment was not of the best in many of the rallies. He missed many a chance to follow a forcing shot to the net, preferring to stay back. That this was a mistake was evidenced by the fact that at deep court driving Hammett, he nearly as severe, was twice as steady. On the occasions when short return brought Fisher up to the forward court he smashed impressively and with such force that he did not force the attack at the net.The point score and stroke analysis follows:
